

2 KILLED, 30 HURT ON RAIL TRAIN

Justice Not Baffled by Arguments

Discussion Pro and Con Over Insanity in Franks Case Does Not Change Ideas of Court About It.

Jury Motion Overruled

By JAMES WHITTAKER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Aug. 5.—In this trial of Leopold and Loeb, which has become as twisted and contradictory as the brains which conceived the murder of Robert Franks, there was today the spectacle of a defense fighting desperately to avoid an official declaration that their clients are not guilty.

Romance Between Claire and Bert Off

Romance between Claire Windsor (above) and Bert Lytell, movie stars, is all off. Claire has gone back to Hollywood and the hero is in New York. Rumor has it, he may return to Evelyn Vaughn, his mate of yore.

Three Killed in Blast at Steel Plant in Gary

Half Dozen Others Hurt in Gas Explosion, Which Was Heard for Miles—Find One Body.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 5.—Rescuers were working feverishly late today trying to recover bodies from a mass of twisted steel in the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company plant in which three workers are known to have been killed and a half dozen others injured.

Reimers Case Dismissed

Lawrence (Twin) Kenny was bound over to the district court under $10,000 bond after a preliminary hearing before County Judge Crawford Tuesday morning.

Kenny Held Under Bond of $10,000

When his counsel demurred at the big bond named, Judge Crawford said: "This community has been annoyed long enough. It is time we clamp down. There was a time when suspicious characters were vagued as soon as they showed their faces in town. But they don't do that any more."

Brother Jerks Woman From Path of Train

Chicago, Aug. 5.—C. L. Hall of Omaha, Neb., today saved his sister, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, from death, when she jumped from an "L" station before an oncoming train.

Train Service on Northwestern Is Delayed by Storm

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Fremont, Aug. 5.—Reports reached Fremont today of considerable damage by cloudbursts and storms that resulted in washouts on the Northwestern this morning.

Two Washouts Between Norfolk and Stanton—Slight Damage to Crops Reported.

The lord mayor of the town and the members of the town council welcomed the Americans on their arrival at the pier, and women presented each of the airmen with a bouquet of flowers.

Women Present Flowers

The aviators will be the guest of the town while here. They have been given quarters in the suburbs.

Confidence of Allies May Be Historic One

Meeting Marks Beginning of New Spirit—Believe De-liberation Will Occupy at Least a Week.

By Robert J. Frew, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. London, Aug. 5.—Today's proceedings at the allied conference, though not marked by any sensational incident, may yet prove to be of even more historic importance than the Versailles conference as a beginning of better feeling between the allies and their associates and Germany.

Grand Jury to Convene Today

With the utmost secrecy jurymen were gathered Tuesday for a special session of the grand jury to convene in the Federal building this morning.

Mussolini's Asked to Halt Revels of Society at New "Italian Palm Beach"

Alleged Champagne Orgies and Moonlight Bathing Parties Saus Suits Near Venice Bring Protests to Premier—"Saturmalia" Called Off.

By BASIL D. WOON, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Paris, Aug. 5.—It has become known that high nobles of Roman society have petitioned Premier Mussolini to put an end to the "licentious behavior of the dissolute foreign set who are aided and abetted by wild Italians" at the "Italian Palm Beach" near Venice.

Brother Jerks Woman From Path of Train

Chicago, Aug. 5.—C. L. Hall of Omaha, Neb., today saved his sister, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, from death, when she jumped from an "L" station before an oncoming train.

Train Service on Northwestern Is Delayed by Storm

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Fremont, Aug. 5.—Reports reached Fremont today of considerable damage by cloudbursts and storms that resulted in washouts on the Northwestern this morning.

Two Washouts Between Norfolk and Stanton—Slight Damage to Crops Reported.

The lord mayor of the town and the members of the town council welcomed the Americans on their arrival at the pier, and women presented each of the airmen with a bouquet of flowers.

Women Present Flowers

The aviators will be the guest of the town while here. They have been given quarters in the suburbs.

Confidence of Allies May Be Historic One

Meeting Marks Beginning of New Spirit—Believe De-liberation Will Occupy at Least a Week.

By Robert J. Frew, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. London, Aug. 5.—Today's proceedings at the allied conference, though not marked by any sensational incident, may yet prove to be of even more historic importance than the Versailles conference as a beginning of better feeling between the allies and their associates and Germany.

Grand Jury to Convene Today

With the utmost secrecy jurymen were gathered Tuesday for a special session of the grand jury to convene in the Federal building this morning.

Justice Not Baffled by Arguments

Discussion Pro and Con Over Insanity in Franks Case Does Not Change Ideas of Court About It.

Jury Motion Overruled

By JAMES WHITTAKER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Aug. 5.—In this trial of Leopold and Loeb, which has become as twisted and contradictory as the brains which conceived the murder of Robert Franks, there was today the spectacle of a defense fighting desperately to avoid an official declaration that their clients are not guilty.

Romance Between Claire and Bert Off

Romance between Claire Windsor (above) and Bert Lytell, movie stars, is all off. Claire has gone back to Hollywood and the hero is in New York. Rumor has it, he may return to Evelyn Vaughn, his mate of yore.

Three Killed in Blast at Steel Plant in Gary

Half Dozen Others Hurt in Gas Explosion, Which Was Heard for Miles—Find One Body.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 5.—Rescuers were working feverishly late today trying to recover bodies from a mass of twisted steel in the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company plant in which three workers are known to have been killed and a half dozen others injured.

Reimers Case Dismissed

Lawrence (Twin) Kenny was bound over to the district court under $10,000 bond after a preliminary hearing before County Judge Crawford Tuesday morning.

Kenny Held Under Bond of $10,000

When his counsel demurred at the big bond named, Judge Crawford said: "This community has been annoyed long enough. It is time we clamp down. There was a time when suspicious characters were vagued as soon as they showed their faces in town. But they don't do that any more."

Brother Jerks Woman From Path of Train

Chicago, Aug. 5.—C. L. Hall of Omaha, Neb., today saved his sister, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, from death, when she jumped from an "L" station before an oncoming train.

Train Service on Northwestern Is Delayed by Storm

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Fremont, Aug. 5.—Reports reached Fremont today of considerable damage by cloudbursts and storms that resulted in washouts on the Northwestern this morning.

Two Washouts Between Norfolk and Stanton—Slight Damage to Crops Reported.

The lord mayor of the town and the members of the town council welcomed the Americans on their arrival at the pier, and women presented each of the airmen with a bouquet of flowers.

Fliers Skirt Iceland in Five Hours

Planes Buffeted by Wind but They Make Splendid Landing—Natives Greet Them With Flowers.

Confer on Future Plans

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 5.—Skiing the southeastern, southern and southwestern coasts of Iceland, Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. Erik Nelson today drove their round-the-world planes from Hoenf Hornarport to Reykjavik, a distance of some 300 miles, in four hours, and 58 minutes.

Confidence of Allies May Be Historic One

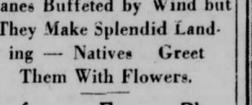

Meeting Marks Beginning of New Spirit—Believe De-liberation Will Occupy at Least a Week.

By Robert J. Frew, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. London, Aug. 5.—Today's proceedings at the allied conference, though not marked by any sensational incident, may yet prove to be of even more historic importance than the Versailles conference as a beginning of better feeling between the allies and their associates and Germany.

Grand Jury to Convene Today

With the utmost secrecy jurymen were gathered Tuesday for a special session of the grand jury to convene in the Federal building this morning.

Marie Mosquini Is Sued for Divorce

Marie Mosquini, tomboy comedienne of the movies, is named by her husband, Roy Harlow, in a suit for divorce. Marie also is named in another suit, filed by her husband against her mother for $25,000 for "breaking up his home."

Four More Will Die From Crash

Wooden Cars on Elevated, Out of Control, Plunge Into Rear of Steel Subway Express.

Motorman Leaps to Safety

New York, Aug. 5.—Abandoned by its motorman, who leaped to safety when he discovered that his air brakes would not work, a six-car wooden elevated train plunged into the rear of a steel subway train at Ocean Parkway station, Long Island, late this afternoon, killing two and injuring at least 50. Four are expected to die of injuries received in the crash.

Crude Oil Price Reduced Again

Pittsburgh, Aug. 5.—Crude oil prices were cut from 10 to 25 cents a barrel by the leading purchasing agents here today. The new prices were:

Nebraska Crop Prospects Good

Corn is promising wheat better, oats good and potatoes excellent, according to a state report just issued from Lincoln by A. L. Anderson, statistician for the bureau of crop and livestock estimates. Nebraska crop prospects are good, he says.

Good Morning, George!

Good morning George! Good morning Mr. Toast! Tell me what's new today, George. Well, Mr. Toast, the second string men are going to start practice in the Political League this month on Nebraska Field down at Lincoln. And as soon as they learn their formations and signals, the different teams will make the Nebraska circuit and give exhibitions.

Overcome by Heat

Nebraska City, Aug. 5.—Frank Hill, Nebraska Duff Grain company office man, was overcome by the heat Monday. He was removed to his home.

The Weather

For 24 hours ending 8 p. m. Aug. 5. Precipitation, inches and hundredths. Total at 11:59 a. m. January 1, 1913. Deficiency, 1.00.

Justice Not Baffled by Arguments

Discussion Pro and Con Over Insanity in Franks Case Does Not Change Ideas of Court About It.

Jury Motion Overruled

By JAMES WHITTAKER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Aug. 5.—In this trial of Leopold and Loeb, which has become as twisted and contradictory as the brains which conceived the murder of Robert Franks, there was today the spectacle of a defense fighting desperately to avoid an official declaration that their clients are not guilty.

Romance Between Claire and Bert Off

Romance between Claire Windsor (above) and Bert Lytell, movie stars, is all off. Claire has gone back to Hollywood and the hero is in New York. Rumor has it, he may return to Evelyn Vaughn, his mate of yore.

Three Killed in Blast at Steel Plant in Gary

Half Dozen Others Hurt in Gas Explosion, Which Was Heard for Miles—Find One Body.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 5.—Rescuers were working feverishly late today trying to recover bodies from a mass of twisted steel in the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company plant in which three workers are known to have been killed and a half dozen others injured.

Reimers Case Dismissed

Lawrence (Twin) Kenny was bound over to the district court under $10,000 bond after a preliminary hearing before County Judge Crawford Tuesday morning.

Kenny Held Under Bond of $10,000

When his counsel demurred at the big bond named, Judge Crawford said: "This community has been annoyed long enough. It is time we clamp down. There was a time when suspicious characters were vagued as soon as they showed their faces in town. But they don't do that any more."

Brother Jerks Woman From Path of Train

Chicago, Aug. 5.—C. L. Hall of Omaha, Neb., today saved his sister, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, from death, when she jumped from an "L" station before an oncoming train.

Train Service on Northwestern Is Delayed by Storm

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Fremont, Aug. 5.—Reports reached Fremont today of considerable damage by cloudbursts and storms that resulted in washouts on the Northwestern this morning.

Two Washouts Between Norfolk and Stanton—Slight Damage to Crops Reported.

The lord mayor of the town and the members of the town council welcomed the Americans on their arrival at the pier, and women presented each of the airmen with a bouquet of flowers.

Justice Not Baffled by Arguments

Discussion Pro and Con Over Insanity in Franks Case Does Not Change Ideas of Court About It.

Jury Motion Overruled

By JAMES WHITTAKER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Aug. 5.—In this trial of Leopold and Loeb, which has become as twisted and contradictory as the brains which conceived the murder of Robert Franks, there was today the spectacle of a defense fighting desperately to avoid an official declaration that their clients are not guilty.

Romance Between Claire and Bert Off

Romance between Claire Windsor (above) and Bert Lytell, movie stars, is all off. Claire has gone back to Hollywood and the hero is in New York. Rumor has it, he may return to Evelyn Vaughn, his mate of yore.

Three Killed in Blast at Steel Plant in Gary

Half Dozen Others Hurt in Gas Explosion, Which Was Heard for Miles—Find One Body.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 5.—Rescuers were working feverishly late today trying to recover bodies from a mass of twisted steel in the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company plant in which three workers are known to have been killed and a half dozen others injured.

Reimers Case Dismissed

Lawrence (Twin) Kenny was bound over to the district court under $10,000 bond after a preliminary hearing before County Judge Crawford Tuesday morning.

Kenny Held Under Bond of $10,000

When his counsel demurred at the big bond named, Judge Crawford said: "This community has been annoyed long enough. It is time we clamp down. There was a time when suspicious characters were vagued as soon as they showed their faces in town. But they don't do that any more."

Brother Jerks Woman From Path of Train

Chicago, Aug. 5.—C. L. Hall of Omaha, Neb., today saved his sister, Mrs. Maude A. Smith, from death, when she jumped from an "L" station before an oncoming train.

Train Service on Northwestern Is Delayed by Storm

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Fremont, Aug. 5.—Reports reached Fremont today of considerable damage by cloudbursts and storms that resulted in washouts on the Northwestern this morning.

Two Washouts Between Norfolk and Stanton—Slight Damage to Crops Reported.

The lord mayor of the town and the members of the town council welcomed the Americans on their arrival at the pier, and women presented each of the airmen with a bouquet of flowers.

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—Eight youths and a trio of hooded-bandit girls, all of the 11 under 21 years old, are in custody here today as bandit suspects. Police allege they participated in more than 40 holdups and robberies, including the robbery near here last Friday of Betty Blythe, motion picture actress, who lost several diamond rings and a fur.

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—Eight youths and a trio of hooded-bandit girls, all of the 11 under 21 years old, are in custody here today as bandit suspects. Police allege they participated in more than 40 holdups and robberies, including the robbery near here last Friday of Betty Blythe, motion picture actress, who lost several diamond rings and a fur.

8 BOYS, 3 GIRLS, HELD AS BANDITS

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—Eight youths and a trio of hooded-bandit girls, all of the 11 under 21 years old, are in custody here today as bandit suspects. Police allege they participated in more than 40 holdups and robberies, including the robbery near here last Friday of Betty Blythe, motion picture actress, who lost several diamond rings and a fur.

ARGENTINE FLYER NEARS NASIRABAD

London, Aug. 5.—Major Zanni, Argentine round-the-world aviator, has departed for Nasirabad, British India, said a dispatch from Karachi this afternoon. A previous dispatch from Rangoon intimated that the South American aviator was weather bound as a cyclone warning had been announced in the Bay of Bengal region.

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—Eight youths and a trio of hooded-bandit girls, all of the 11 under 21 years old, are in custody here today as bandit suspects. Police allege they participated in more than 40 holdups and robberies, including the robbery near here last Friday of Betty Blythe, motion picture actress, who lost several diamond rings and a fur.

Mother and Daughter Fined for Attacking Neighbor

Columbus, Neb., Aug. 5.—A woman's bites on her shoulders and arms and a small ball of human hair were among exhibits shown in police court by Mrs. Dolly Squares when she appeared against Mrs. Millie Bader and Miss Mary Bader, charging the two women with assault and battery.

Eleanor Foskett Weds.

Shenandoah, Ia., Aug. 5.—Miss Eleanor Foskett, daughter of Senator Foskett, a Shenandoah banker, was married last night at her home to Fred William Armitage of Green Bay, Wis. Miss Foskett has been teaching at Green Bay. Rev. G. P. Mitchell of Des Moines performed the ceremony in an arbor on the lawn.

Married in Council Bluffs.

The following persons obtained marriage licenses in Council Bluffs yesterday: Leo Keltz, Omaha; 24. Rosalie Skank, Prague, Neb.; 24. Viola Mason, Denver, Colo.; 24. Ralph C. Sherwin, Council Bluffs; 22. Harry L. Buchanan, Omaha; 22. Chester Morriss, Cook, Neb.; 21. Clara Pearl Wright, Lincoln; 21. Wendal W. Nash, Woodbine, Ia.; 21. Carrie Marie Heft, Woodbine, Ia.; 21. Steven Weener, Brookline, Neb.; 21. Ella Totten, Kearney, Neb.; 21. Anton A. Dvorak, Brainerd, Neb.; 20. Emily Nostka, Bruno, Neb.; 20. Mary Davis, Omaha; 20. James A. Boyett, Kearney, Neb.; 20. J. E. Hayes, Garrison, Neb.; 20. Lucile B. Macrow, Lincoln; 20. Joseph E. Lee, Fort Worth, Tex.; 20. Maude E. Ketter, Delhi, Ia.; 20. Joseph E. Lee, Fort Worth, Tex.; 20. Claude Mathews, Omaha; 20. Julia Himele, Des Moines; 20. Gilbert M. Dean, Gilmer, Neb.; 20. Laura Joyce McKibben, Geneva, Neb.; 20. Robert Boyce, Omaha; 20. Janis J. Butler, Omaha; 20.

ONE OF LANDRU'S VICTIMS FOUND

By C. F. BERTELLI, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Paris, Aug. 5.—Landru, the French bluebeard, may have been innocent, if revelations by the newspaper Paris Soir are borne out by judicial inquiry. The paper states it has found one of the wives whom Landru was alleged to have assassinated.

Los Angeles, Aug. 5.—Eight youths and a trio of hooded-bandit girls, all of the 11 under 21 years old, are in custody here today as bandit suspects. Police allege they participated in more than 40 holdups and robberies, including the robbery near here last Friday of Betty Blythe, motion picture actress, who lost several diamond rings and a fur.

NINE BURNED BY CAN OF CHEMICAL

New York, Aug. 5.—Nine persons were injured, three seriously, when a stopper flew from a can marked "naphthalene" in the lap of a subway patron on a train of the Interborough Rapid Transit company today.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Frank Tinney announced today that she had determined to sue for separation from her comedian husband, whose recent arrest and hearing on charges of having administered a beating to Imogene Wilson, a Follies girl, caused widespread attention.

COMEDIAN'S WIFE TO SEEK DIVORCE